BINGO PERMIT APPLICATION

1. Is your organization a Volunteer Fire Company, a Veterans' Organization, a Religious or Charitable Organization, or a Fraternal Society? Yes No If Yes, check the appropriate box:

- Volunteer Fire Company Veterans Organization Religious Organization
- Charitable Organization Fraternal Society

Under Delaware law (Article II, Section 17A of the state Constitution), the Gaming Control Board can license only volunteer Fire Companies, Veterans' Organizations, Religious or Charitable Organizations, or Fraternal Societies to conduct bingo and the Companies, Organizations or Societies must operate in a manner so as to come within the provisions of Section 170 of the Internal Revenue Code.

2. Is this is your first application for a permit in Delaware? Yes No

If Yes, you must submit copies of your

- IRS affirmation letter, and
- formation documents (e.g., articles of incorporation, constitution, by-laws, charter, etc.)

If No, your signature on this application certifies that the documents currently on file with this office have not changed.

3. Are you relying on a group exemption letter issued to your parent organization? Yes No

If Yes, you must submit a

- letter from your parent organization (on its letterhead) specifically stating that your organization is properly affiliated and permitted to hold this event, and
- current copy of the parent organization's IRS group exemption letter.

If you do not have a letter from the IRS verifying your status as an Internal Revenue Code Section 170 tax-exempt organization, you may apply to the IRS for Section 170 non-profit tax exempt status. See www.irs.gov.

Only bona fide active members will assist in the conduct of the games. They all are of good moral character and have never been convicted of a crime involving moral turpitude. A current listing of such members is being maintained at the organization's business office, in conformance with 28 Del. C., §1132 (b) (2).
